

K-W Singers

Performing choral music in Kitchener-Waterloo since 1948

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 13, 2018

K-W Singers celebrate their 70th year with 'Songs for the Season'

The K-W Singers are holding their annual holiday concert on December 7 & 8 at 7:30pm at Calvin Presbyterian Church, 248 Westmount Rd. E., Kitchener.

Directed by Jane Gingerich and accompanied by Donna Mak, the choir will be performing traditional carols, a mixture of sacred and secular music, as well as more out-of-the ordinary seasonal pieces. The concert will also include audience participation with sing-a-long Christmas carols.

The concert will also include guest performances from piano students Jennifer Jia, Phoebe Lin, Elmer Lei, Elvin Lei, Brianna Liang & Chelsea Liang.

Refreshments are available at a reception after the concert, along with a chance to mingle with the choir and performers.

Tickets are $10 and will be available at the door, from any choir member or requested through the website (kwsingers.org).

ABOUT THE CHOIR

Originally founded in 1948 as the Dominion Life Choir, the K-W Singers is a multi-age, four-part adult choir located in Kitchener, Ontario. The choir performs two concerts per year, in December and April/May. They also perform mini concerts in retirement homes throughout the community.

The choir is a registered charity and supports itself through donations, ticket sales and various fundraising activities. Jane Gingerich has been the director since 2010, and Donna Mak has been the accompanist since 1998.

###

Press Kit

kwsingers.org/press-kit - photos, biographies, additional information

Contact: press@kwsingers.org